SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIFTY-FIRST DAY—WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13, 2016

---

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Kinder in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“...the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth, that God governs the affairs of men.” (Benjamin Franklin)

O God who governs all that exists, we recognize that we can learn from those who have gone before us. We see the faces and names every day, as we walk these halls and in the books we read and the images we see, of those who have gone before us; help us learn the lesson of Your benevolent governing of our world as they did. Help us to see how they learned to work together so our mutual efforts might truly be beneficial as we, like them, seek to follow Your directing spirit. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1970

Whereas, Wednesday, April 13, 2016, marks the 273rd anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson, third President of the United States, author of the Declaration of American Independence, and greatest advocate of democracy of all time; and

Whereas, the Senate is desirous of paying tribute to the memory of this great man; and

Whereas, the Senate of Missouri, perhaps more than other lawmakers elsewhere in the nation, should be constantly aware of the vision of Jefferson the man as we conduct the governance of this state on the brow of the bluff overlooking the great river which drains a large part of the territory purchased by Thomas Jefferson in the Louisiana Purchase, the most significant and far-reaching extension of territory ever peaceably made by any government in all of human history; and

Whereas, we cannot acclaim too highly the deeds of this great man, an author, architect, President of the Philosophical Society of the United States for twenty years, scholar, statesman, first Secretary of State, second Vice-President, and third President of the United States, a man thoroughly rounded in nature and accomplishments who so nobly fulfilled all the important responsibilities which came to him in his notable career; and

Whereas, by his authorship of the Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson presented to the world one of the greatest documents of American history and in the whole history of human freedom and gave to the world a whole new concept of existence of government by the consent and for the welfare of the people; and

Whereas, Jefferson began his formal education at the age of nine, studying Latin and Greek at a local private school run by the Reverend William Douglas; and

Whereas, in 1757, at the age of 14, he took up further study of the classical languages as well as literature and mathematics with the Reverend James Maury, whom Jefferson later described as a correct classical scholar; and

Whereas in 1760, having learned all he could from Reverend Maury, Jefferson left home to attend the College of William and Mary in

Williamsburg, Virginia's capital; and

Whereas, Jefferson read law under George Wythe, one of the preeminent lawyers of the American colonies and although there were no law schools at this time, Jefferson won admission to the Virginia bar in 1767 and was one of the most learned lawyers in America; and

Whereas, from 1767 to 1774, Jefferson practiced law in Virginia with great success and it was during this time he met Martha Wayles Skelton and the pair married on January 1, 1772; and

Whereas, Jefferson was one of the earliest and most fervent supporters of the cause of American independence from Great Britain; and

Whereas, he was elected to the Virginia House of Burgesses in 1768 and joined its radical bloc, led by Patrick Henry and George Washington; and

Whereas, in 1774, Jefferson penned his first major political work, "A Summary View of the Rights of British America" which established his reputation as one of the most eloquent advocates of the American cause; and

Whereas, in June of 1776, Congress appointed a select group of five men to draft a Declaration of Independence and that committee chose Jefferson to author the Declaration's first draft; and

Whereas, after authoring the Declaration of Independence, Jefferson returned to Virginia where he served as a member of the Virginia House of Delegates and sought to revise Virginia's laws to fit the ideals he had outlined in the Declaration of Independence while also authoring Virginia's statute for religious freedom; and

Whereas, Jefferson served two years as Governor of Virginia after being elected by the state's legislature; and

Whereas, after the tragic death of his beloved wife Martha, Jefferson returned to Philadelphia to lead the Virginia delegation to the Confederation of Congress and that body appointed him as the U.S. Minister to France; and

Whereas, in 1797, Republicans selected Jefferson as their candidate to succeed George Washington as President, but he finished a close second to John Adams during the election in the electoral college, and because of the rules at that time, he then became Vice-President; and

Whereas, the presidential election of 1800 revealed deep division in the Federalist Party and Republican candidates Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr tied for first place in the electoral college and after a contentious debate, the House of Representatives elected Jefferson to serve as the third President of the United States; and

Whereas, Jefferson's first term in office was the first peacetime transfer of power from one party to another and was remarkably successful and productive as he reduced the national debt and reduced government bureaucracy; and

Whereas, the priceless treasure of democracy which was Thomas Jefferson's legacy to the people of our great country, has secured for him a place of honor in the annals of history, now and forevermore:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that we, the members of the Missouri Senate of the 98th General Assembly, Second Regular Session, rededicate our lives and pledge anew our devotion to those principles of democracy and human liberty, as envisioned by Thomas Jefferson, apostle of just government by free people.

Senator Kraus offered Senate Resolution No. 1971, regarding Elmer J. "E.J." Hess , which was adopted.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Senator Kehoe, Chairman of the Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, Resolutions and Ethics, submitted the following reports:

Mr. President: Your Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, Resolutions and Ethics, to which were referred SCS for SB 996; SCS for SB 968; SCS for SB 904; SB 899; and SB 873, begs leave to report that it has examined the same and finds that the bills have been truly perfected and that the printed copies furnished the Senators are correct.

Senator Schmitt assumed the Chair.

RESOLUTIONS

Senator Schaefer moved that SR 1793, with SCS, be taken up for adoption, which motion prevailed.

SCS for SR 1793 was taken up.

Senator Schaefer offered SS for SCS for SR 1793:

SENATE SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1793

Whereas, on July 21, 2015, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate established, pursuant to Senate Rule No. 31, the Senate Interim Committee on the Sanctity of Life composed of seven members of the Missouri Senate (later amended to include ten members of the Senate) with the following duties:

1. Conduct an in-depth analysis of the Planned Parenthood business model and the methods by which they dispose of human remains from aborted fetuses;
2. Investigate whether Planned Parenthood, and any of its affiliates or associates, is or has engaged in activity contrary to the laws of this state;
3. Determine whether any state dollars have been directly used in such activity or used in a manner to offset expenses so that Planned Parenthood and any of its affiliates and associates might engage in such alleged activities;
4. Investigate whether any person, past or present, employed by the state of Missouri had any prior knowledge of any such alleged activity or misuse of state funds; and
5. Examine and investigate any other issues the Committee deems relevant to the allegations brought forth against Planned Parenthood; and

Whereas, over the course of several months, the Committee held public hearings to receive the testimony of witnesses and develop recommendations for the Missouri Senate; and

Whereas, on November 24, 2015, the Committee, pursuant to the call issued by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate on July 21, 2015, and as part of its legislative duties to investigate whether or not an entity that is receiving state funds violated any state laws, issued a subpoena duces tecum to Mary Kogut of Planned Parenthood of the St. Louis Region and Southwest Missouri (attached as Exhibit 1). The subpoena was properly signed by President Pro Tempore of the Missouri Senate Ron Richard and attested to by the Secretary of the Missouri Senate and received by Ms. Kogut on or about November 24, 2015; and

Whereas, the subpoena duces tecum commanded Ms. Kogut to provide the records contained in Attachment A to the subpoena within fourteen days after receiving service of the subpoena; and

Whereas, on December 4, 2015, an attorney representing Planned Parenthood of the St. Louis Region and Southwest Missouri (PPSLR) sent a letter to President Pro Tempore Richard objecting to the subpoena and indicating that PPSLR would not be producing responsive documents; and

Whereas, the objections to the subpoena duces tecum contained in the letter to President Pro Tempore Richard by PPSLR on December 4, 2015, have been distributed to the members of the Senate Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, Resolutions, and Ethics; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Senate Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, Resolutions, and Ethics, the objections to the subpoena duces tecum are without merit and that such subpoena should be fully complied with; and

Whereas, correspondence between the counsel for the President Pro Tempore and PPSLR dated March 21, 2016, removed any possible ambiguity by clarifying that the subpoena duces tecum did not seek any personally identifiable information from any client; and

Whereas, to this day, PPSLR has failed to comply with a properly executed subpoena duces tecum issued by the Missouri Senate and has not indicated that it intends to ever comply with the subpoena duces tecum; and

Whereas, in the judgment of this body, the documents sought by the Committee were relevant and pertinent to the charge of the Committee and should have been produced by PPSLR in the time period denoted in the subpoena duces tecum; and

Whereas, the General Assembly is authorized to issue subpoenas pursuant to Senate Rule 14 as well as Section 21.400, RSMo, which states “Subpoenas for witnesses and the production of records shall be issued at the request of any member of the senate or the house of representatives, or the party accused, or any member of any committee; and all process awarded by the senate or house of representatives, and subpoenas and other process for witnesses whose attendance is required by either the senate or the house, or before any committee, shall be under the hand of the president pro tem, or the speaker and attested by the secretary or chief clerk, as the case may be, and shall be executed by the sergeant at arms of such house, or by a special messenger appointed for that purpose.”; and

Whereas, the General Assembly possesses power under the Missouri Constitution to arrest and punish a person who is guilty of contemptuous behavior; specifically Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution states, in part, that “Each house [of the General Assembly] may arrest and punish by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, or imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding ten days, or both, any person not a member, who shall be guilty of disrespect to the house by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence during its sessions...”; and

Whereas, Ms. Kogut and PPSLR appear to have had no lawful excuse for not complying with the subpoena duces tecum; that the information to be obtained by the Committee from PPSLR would be important and material for the Committee in fulfilling its legislative duties; that absent any lawful excuse it was the duty of Ms. Kogut and PPSLR to have provided the requested documents:

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-eighth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, hereby take notice of the aforementioned failure to comply with the subpoena duces tecum issued by the Missouri Senate; and

Be It Further Resolved that Ms. Kogut be summoned to appear at the bar of this body and show cause why she should not be found to have engaged in contemptuous behavior under Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution by refusing to comply with the subpoena issued under authority granted by Senate Rule 14 and section 21.400, RSMo, and be punished for said contempt; and

Be It Further Resolved that the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Secretary of the Senate are hereby authorized to issue the necessary process to bring Ms. Kogut to the Senate Chamber within the Missouri State Capitol on April 25, 2016, at 2:00 p.m., and the Sergeant-at-Arms, or his designee, is authorized and required to execute such process in the manner directed therein.
