

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

SENATE BILL NO. 647

95TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY SENATOR BRAY.

Pre-filed December 1, 2009, and ordered printed.

TERRY L. SPIELER, Secretary.

3528S.011

AN ACT

To repeal sections 290.400, 290.410, 290.440, and 290.450, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof five new sections relating to equal employment practices.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 290.400, 290.410, 290.440, and 290.450, RSMo, are 2 repealed and five new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 3 290.160, 290.175, 290.400, 290.410, and 290.440, to read as follows:

290.160. 1. Upon commencement of an individual's employment, 2 and at least annually thereafter, every employer shall provide to each 3 employee a written statement sufficient to inform the employee of his 4 or her job title, wage rate, and how the wage is calculated. This notice 5 shall be supplemented whenever an employee is promoted or 6 reassigned to a different position with the employer, provided that the 7 employer is not required to issue supplemental notifications for 8 temporary reassignments that are of no more than three months in 9 duration.

10 2. Every employer shall make and preserve records that 11 document the wages paid to employees, and that document and support 12 the method, system, calculations, and other bases used to establish, 13 adjust, and determine the wage rates paid to said employer's 14 employees. Every employer subject to this section shall preserve 15 records and make reports from the records as shall be prescribed by 16 the department of labor and industrial relations.

17 3. The regulations promulgated under this section relating to the 18 form of reports required shall provide for protection of the EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

19 confidentiality of employees, and shall expressly require that reports 20 shall not include the names or other identifying information from 21 which readers could discern the identities of employees. The 22 regulations may also identify circumstances that warrant a prohibition 23 on disclosure of reports or information identifying the employer.

24 4. The department of labor and industrial relations may use the 25 information and data it collects pursuant to this section for statistical 26 and research purposes, and may compile and publish such studies, 27 analyses, reports, and surveys based on the information and data, as it 28 considers appropriate.

29 5. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 30 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section 31 shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of 32 the provisions of chapter 536, and, if applicable, section 536.028. This 33 section and chapter 536, are nonseverable and if any of the powers 34 vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, to review, to 35 delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are 36 subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking 37 authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2010, shall 38 be invalid and void.

290.175. 1. Within ninety days of the effective date of this act, 2 the director of the department of labor and industrial relations shall 3 appoint a commission of nine members, to be known as the "Equal Pay 4 Commission".

5 2. Membership of the commission shall be as follows:

6 (1) Two representatives of businesses in the state who are 7 appointed from among individuals nominated by state business 8 organizations and business trade associations;

9 (2) Two representatives of labor organizations who have been 10 nominated by a state labor federation chartered by a federation of 11 national or international unions, that admits local unions as members, 12 and exists primarily to carry on educational, legislative, and 13 coordinating activities;

14 (3) Two representatives of organizations whose objectives 15 include the elimination of pay disparities between men and women and 16 between minorities and non-minorities, and who have undertaken 17 advocacy, educational, or legislative initiatives in pursuit of that 18 objective;

19 (4) Three individuals drawn from higher education or research 20 institutions who have experience and expertise in the collection and 21 analysis of data concerning such pay disparities and whose research 22 has already been used in efforts to promote the elimination of those 23 disparities.

24 3. The commission shall make a full and complete study of:

25 (1) The extent of wage disparities, in both the public and private 26 sectors, between men and women, and between minorities and non- 27 minorities;

28 (2) Those factors that cause, or that tend to cause, such 29 disparities, including segregation of women and men, and of minorities 30 and non-minorities across and within occupations; payment of lower 31 wages for occupations traditionally dominated by women and 32 minorities; child-rearing responsibilities; and education and training;

33 (3) The consequences of such disparities on the economy and on 34 affected families;

35 (4) Actions, including proposed legislation, that are likely to lead 36 to the elimination and prevention of such disparities.

37 4. The commission shall, no later than twelve months after its 38 members are appointed, make its report to the director of the 39 department of labor and industrial relations, who shall in turn transmit 40 it to the governor.

41 5. The commission's report shall include the results of its study, 42 as well as recommendations, legislative and otherwise, for the 43 elimination and prevention of disparities in wages between men and 44 women, and between minorities and non-minorities.

290.400. As used in sections 290.400 to [290.450] ~~290.440~~ the following 2 words have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

3 (1) "Commission", the labor and industrial relations commission of 4 Missouri;

5 (2) "Employee", every woman or man in receipt of or entitled to 6 compensation for labor performed for any employer;

7 (3) "Employer", every person, firm, corporation, agent, manager, 8 representative, contractor, subcontractor, principal or other person having control 9 or direction of any woman or man employed at any labor, or responsible directly 10 or indirectly for the wages of another;

11 (4) ["Female", a woman of eighteen years or over;

12 (5) "Wage rates" or "wages", [any compensation for labor measured by 13 time, piece, or otherwise] all compensation in any form that an employer 14 provides to employees in payment for work done or services rendered, 15 including but not limited to base pay, overtime bonuses, stock options, 16 awards or tips, or various forms of nonmonetary compensation if 17 provided in lieu of or in addition to monetary compensation, provided 18 that such compensation has economic value to an employee.

290.410. 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law, no employer 2 shall pay any [female in his employ at] employee wage rates less than the wage 3 rates paid to [male] employees [in the same establishment for the same quantity 4 and quality of the same classification of work, provided that nothing herein shall 5 prohibit a variation of rates of pay for male and female employees engaged in the 6 same classification of work based upon a difference in seniority, length of service, 7 ability, skill, difference in duties or services performed, difference in the shift or 8 time of day worked, hours of work, or restrictions or prohibitions on lifting or 9 moving objects in excess of specified weight, or other reasonable differentiation, 10 or factors other than sex, when exercised in good faith] of the opposite gender, 11 for equal work, the performance of which requires equal skill, effort, 12 and responsibility, and which is performed under similar working 13 conditions.

14 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, 15 it shall not be unlawful for an employer to pay different wage rates to 16 employees if such payments are made pursuant to:

17 (1) A bona fide seniority or merit system;

18 (2) A system that measures earnings by quantity or quality of 19 production;

20 (3) Any bona fide factor other than gender, provided that wage 21 differentials based on varying market rates for equal jobs shall not be 22 considered differentials based on bona fide factors other than gender; 23 or

24 (4) Bona fide regional economic differentials.

25 3. An employer who is paying wages in violation of this section 26 shall not, in order to comply with this section, reduce the wage of any 27 employee.

28 4. No employer may discharge or take any adverse action or

29 otherwise discriminate against any individual because such individual 30 has:

31 (1) Opposed any act or practice made unlawful by this section; 32 or

33 (2) Testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an 34 investigation, hearing, or other proceeding to enforce this section.

35 5. No employer may discharge or take any adverse action or 36 otherwise discriminate against, coerce, intimidate, threaten, or 37 interfere with any employee because such employee either inquired 38 about, compared, or otherwise discussed the employee's wages or the 39 wages of another employee; or exercised, enjoyed, aided, or encouraged 40 any other person to exercise or enjoy any right granted or protected by 41 this section.

290.440. 1. Any employer who violates section 290.410 is liable to the 2 [female] employee affected in the amount of the wages of which the [female] 3 employee is deprived by reason of the violation and an additional amount in 4 compensatory damages, such additional amount not to exceed twice the 5 wages awarded.

6 2. [Any female employee receiving less than the wage to which she is 7 entitled under sections 290.400 to 290.450 may recover in a civil action the 8 balance of the wages, together with the costs of suit, notwithstanding any 9 agreement to work for a lesser wage.] Any employer who violates 10 subsection 4 or 5 of section 290.410 is liable to any individual affected 11 in the amount of all wages and benefits lost as a result of the 12 retaliation and, if awarded, an additional amount of compensatory 13 damages in an amount to be determined by a judge or jury trial.

14 3. [The burden of proof shall be upon the person bringing the claim to 15 establish that the differentiation in rate of pay is based upon the factor of sex and 16 not upon other differences or factors.] In the event of a finding that an 17 employer has violated section 290.410, a court may enjoin such 18 employer from future violations of section 290.410, and may order the 19 employer to take such additional steps as are necessary, including 20 reclassification of affected workers to ensure the cessation of the 21 employer's gender-based pay practices or, if the employer has engaged 22 in unlawful retaliation prohibited herein, the court may order such 23 relief as to make the employee whole, including reinstatement.

24 4. Any employee prevailing in a civil action brought pursuant to 25 sections 290.400 to 290.440, in addition to the remedies set forth in this 26 section, may also recover court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, 27 notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage. Any action 28 brought pursuant to sections 290.400 to 290.440 shall be commenced 29 within two years after the alleged violation occurs or the date of the 30 reasonable discovery of such violation.

[290.450. Any action based upon or arising under sections
2 290.400 to 290.450 shall be instituted in the circuit court within six 3 months after the date of the alleged violation, but in no event shall 4 any employer be liable for any pay due under sections 290.400 to 5 290.450 for more than thirty days prior to receipt by the employer
6 of written notice of claim thereof from the female employee.]
