SENATE AMENDMENT NO.

Orrer	ed by
Amend	SS/SCS/HCS/House Bill No. 1682 , Page 2 , Section 9.182 , Line 18
2	of said page, by inserting immediately after all of said line the
3	following:
4	"143.1160. 1. As used in this section, the following terms
5	mean:
6	(1) "Account holder", the same meaning as that term is
7	defined in section 191.1603;
8	(2) "Deduction", an amount subtracted from the taxpayer's
9	Missouri adjusted gross income to determine Missouri taxable
10	income for the tax year in which such deduction is claimed;
11	(3) "Eligible expenses", the same meaning as that term is
12	defined in section 191.1603;
13	(4) "Long-term dignity savings account", the same meaning
14	as that term is defined in section 191.1603;
15	(5) "Qualified beneficiary", the same meaning as that term
16	is defined in section 191.1603;
17	(6) "Taxpayer", any individual who is a resident of this
18	state and subject to the income tax imposed under this chapter,
19	excluding withholding tax imposed under sections 143.191 to
20	143.265.
21	2. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2021,
22	a taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction of one hundred percent of
23	a participating taxpayer's contributions to a long-term dignity taxpayer claiming the deduction under this section shall file an affidavit with the income tax return verifying the amount of their contributions. The amount of the deduction claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's Missouri adjusted gross income for the tax year that the deduction is claimed, and shall not exceed four thousand dollars per taxpayer claiming the deduction, or eight thousand dollars if married filing combined.

- 3. Income earned or received as a result of assets in a long-term dignity savings account shall not be subject to state income tax imposed under this chapter. The exemption under this section shall apply only to income maintained, accrued, or expended pursuant to the requirements of sections 191.1601 to 191.1607, and no exemption shall apply to assets and income expended for any other purpose. The amount of the deduction claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's Missouri adjusted gross income for the tax year the deduction is claimed.
- 4. If any deductible contributions to or earnings from any such programs referred to in this section are distributed and not used to pay for eligible expenses or are not held for the minimum length of time under subsection 2 of section 191.1605, the amount so distributed shall be added to the Missouri adjusted gross income of the account holder or, if the account holder is not living, the qualified beneficiary, in the year of distribution.
- 5. The department of revenue shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all

1	of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section
2	536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if
3	any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to
4	chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to
5	disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held
6	unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any
7	rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2020, shall be invalid
8	and void.
9	6. Under section 23.253 of the Missouri sunset act:

- (1) The provisions of the new program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset on December thirty-first four years after August 28, 2020, unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly;
- (2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset on December thirty-first four years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; and
- (3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset."; and

Further amend said bill, page 16, section 191.1146, line 11 of said page, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

- "191.1601. Section 143.1160 and sections 191.1601 to 191.1607 shall be known and may be cited as the "Long-Term Dignity Act".
- 27 191.1603. As used in sections 191.1601 to 191.1607, the 28 following terms mean:
 - (1) "Account holder", an individual who establishes an

- account with a financial institution that is designated as a long-term dignity savings account in accordance with section

 191.1604;
 - (2) "Department", the department of revenue;

- (3) "Eligible expenses", the same meaning as "qualified long-term care services" in 26 U.S.C. Section 7702B(c);
- (4) "Financial institution", any state bank, state trust company, savings and loan association, federally chartered credit union doing business in this state, credit union chartered by the state of Missouri, national bank, broker-dealer, mutual fund, insurance company, or other similar financial entity qualified to do business in this state;
- (5) "Long-term dignity savings account" or "account", an account with a financial institution designated as such in accordance with subsection 1 of section 191.1604;
- (6) "Qualified beneficiary", an individual designated by an account holder for whose eligible expenses the moneys in a long-term dignity savings account are or will be used; provided, that such individual meets the definition of a "chronically ill individual" in 26 U.S.C. Section 7702B(c)(2) at the time the moneys are used.
- 191.1604. 1. Beginning January 1, 2021, any individual may open an account with a financial institution and designate the account, in its entirety, as a long-term dignity savings account to be used to pay or reimburse a qualified beneficiary's eliqible expenses. An individual may be the account holder of multiple accounts, and an individual may jointly own the account with another person if such persons file a married filing combined income tax return. To be eliqible for the tax deduction under section 143.1160, an account holder shall comply with the requirements of this section.

- 2. An account holder shall designate, no later than April fifteenth of the year following the tax year during which the account was established, a qualified beneficiary of the long-term dignity savings account. The account holder may designate himself or herself as the qualified beneficiary. The account holder may change the designated qualified beneficiary at any time, but no long-term dignity savings account shall have more than one qualified beneficiary at any time. No account holder shall have multiple accounts with the same qualified beneficiary, but an individual may be designated as the qualified beneficiary of multiple accounts.
 - 3. Moneys may remain in a long-term dignity savings account for an unlimited duration without the interest or income being subject to recapture or penalty.
 - 4. The account holder shall not use moneys in an account to pay expenses of administering the account, except that a service fee may be deducted from the account by a financial institution.

 The account holder shall be responsible for maintaining documentation for the long-term dignity savings account and for the qualified beneficiary's eliqible expenses.
 - 191.1605. 1. For purposes of the tax benefit conferred under the long-term dignity savings account act, the moneys in a long-term dignity savings account may be:
 - (1) Used for a qualified beneficiary's eligible expenses;
- (2) Transferred to another newly created long-term dignity savings account; and
 - (3) Used to pay a service fee that is deducted by the financial institution.

2.5

- 2. Moneys withdrawn from a long-term dignity savings account shall be subject to recapture in the tax year in which they are withdrawn if:
- (1) At the time of the withdrawal, it has been less than a year since the first deposit in the long-term dignity savings account; or
- (2) The moneys are used for any purpose other than those specified under subsection 1 of this section.

 The recapture shall be an amount equal to the moneys withdrawn and shall be added to the Missouri adjusted gross income of the account holder or, if the account holder is not living, the qualified beneficiary.
- 3. If any moneys are subject to recapture under subsection 2 of this section, the account holder shall pay to the department a penalty in the same tax year as the recapture. If the withdrawal was made ten or fewer years after the first deposit in the long-term dignity savings account, the penalty shall be equal to five percent of the amount subject to recapture, and, if the withdrawal was made more than ten years after the first deposit in the account, the penalty shall be equal to ten percent of the amount subject to recapture. These penalties shall not apply if the withdrawn moneys are from a long-term dignity savings account for which the qualified beneficiary died, and the account holder does not designate a new qualified beneficiary during the same tax year.
- 4. If the account holder dies or, if the long-term dignity account is jointly owned, the account holders die and the account does not have a surviving transfer-on-death beneficiary, then all of the moneys in the account that were used for a tax deduction under section 143.1160 shall be subject to recapture in the tax year of the death or deaths, but no penalty shall be due to the department.

account holder to annually report information about a long-term dignity savings account including, but not limited to, how the moneys withdrawn from the fund are used, and shall identify any supporting documentation that is required to be maintained. To be eligible for the tax deduction under section 143.1160, an account holder shall annually file with the account holder's state income tax return all forms required by the department under this section, the 1099 form for the account issued by the financial institution, and any other supporting documentation the department requires.

2. The department may promulgate rules and regulations necessary to administer the provisions of sections 191.1601 to 191.1607. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2020, shall be invalid and void.

191.1607. 1. No financial institution shall be required to:

	(1)	Designate an account as a long-term dignity savings
acco	unt o	r designate the beneficiaries of an account in the fina	ncial	institution's account contracts or systems or in any
