SENATE AMENDMENT NO.

Offer	ed by of
Amend	SS/SCS/HCS/House Bill No. 1682 , Page 1 , Section title , Line 6 ,
2	of the title, by inserting after "RSMo," the following: "and
3	section 407.025 as truly agreed to and finally passed by the
4	second regular session of the one hundredth general assembly in
5	senate substitute no. 2 for senate committee substitute for
6	senate bill no. 591"; and
7	Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 9.182, Line 18, by
8	inserting after all of said line the following:
9	"44.045. 1. Subject to approval by the state emergency
10	management agency during an emergency declared by the governor,
11	any health care provider licensed, registered, or certified in
12	this state or any state who agrees to be so deployed as provided
13	in this section may be deployed to provide care as necessitated
14	by the emergency, including care necessitated by mutual aid
15	agreements between political subdivisions and other public and
16	private entities under section 44.090. During an emergency
17	declared by the governor, health care providers deployed by the
18	governor or any state agency shall not be liable for any civil
19	damages or administrative sanctions for any failure, in the
20	delivery of health care necessitated by the emergency during
21	deployment, to exercise the skill and learning of an ordinarily
22	careful health care provider in similar circumstances, but shall be liable for damages due to willful and wanton acts or omissions in rendering such care.

2.5

- 2. In a declared state of emergency, the department of health and senior services and the division of professional registration within the department of commerce and insurance may release otherwise confidential contact and licensure, registration, or certification information relating to health care professionals to state, local, and private agencies to facilitate deployment.
- 3. (1) The limitations on liability for civil damages provided in subsection 1 of this section shall apply to all health care providers whether or not under an official deployment if such health care is rendered in connection with a COVID-19 pandemic. Such limitations on liability for civil damages shall only apply to acts or omissions that occur during the period of time in which the governor has declared a state of emergency due to COVID-19. The limitations on liability in this subsection shall not extend to medical treatments or procedures, facility operations, or other services performed that were not related to COVID-19.
- (2) For purposes of this subsection, "COVID-19" means the severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2.
- (3) For the purposes of this subsection, "health care provider" shall include:
- (a) Any physician, hospital, health maintenance organization, ambulatory surgical center, long-term care facility including those licensed under chapter 198, dentist, registered or licensed practical nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, pharmacist, chiropractor, professional physical therapist, psychologist, physician-in-training, and any other person or entity that

1	provides health care services under the authority of a license or
2	certificate, and the employer or agent of such person or entity;
3	(b) Any individual, health care system, or other entity
4	that provides, refers, coordinates, consults upon, or arranges
5	for the delivery of health care services; and
6	(c) Any individual permitted to provide health care
7	services in the state due to a declared public health
8	<pre>emergency."; and</pre>
9	Further amend said bill, page 70, section 376.1578, line 18
10	of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the
11	following:
12	"407.025. 1. $\underline{(1)}$ Any person who purchases or leases
13	merchandise primarily for personal, family or household purposes
14	and thereby suffers an ascertainable loss of money or property,
15	real or personal, as a result of the use or employment by another
16	person of a method, act or practice declared unlawful by section
17	407.020, may bring a private civil action in either the circuit
18	court of the county in which the seller or lessor resides or in
19	which the transaction complained of took place, to recover actual
20	damages.
21	(2) A person seeking to recover damages shall establish:
22	(a) That the person acted as a reasonable consumer would in
23	light of all circumstances; and
24	(b) Individual damages with sufficiently definitive and
25	objective evidence to allow the loss to be calculated with a
26	reasonable degree of certainty.
27
28	A court may dismiss a claim as a matter of law where the claim
29	fails to show a likelihood that the method, act, or practice

- alleged to be unlawful would mislead a reasonable consumer.
 - 2. The court may, in its discretion[,]:
 - (1) Award punitive damages [and may];

- (2) Award to the prevailing party attorney's fees, based on the amount of time reasonably expended[,]; and [may]
- (3) Provide such equitable relief as it deems necessary or proper to protect the prevailing party from the methods, acts, or practices declared unlawful by section 407.020.
- 3. No action may be brought under this section to recover damages for personal injury or death in which a claim can be made under chapter 538.
- 4. A cause of action under this section accrues on the date of purchase or lease described in subsection 1 of this section or upon receipt of notice of a method, act, or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020.
- [2.] 5. Persons entitled to bring an action pursuant to subsection 1 of this section may, if the unlawful method, act or practice has caused similar injury to numerous other persons, institute an action as representative or representatives of a class against one or more defendants as representatives of a class, and the petition shall allege such facts as will show that these persons or the named defendants specifically named and served with process have been fairly chosen and adequately and fairly represent the whole class, to recover damages as provided for in subsection 1 of this section. The plaintiff shall be required to prove such allegations, unless all of the members of the class have entered their appearance, and it shall not be sufficient to prove such facts by the admission or admissions of the defendants who have entered their appearance. The class representative or representatives shall establish:

- (1) That the representative or representatives acted as a reasonable consumer would in light of all circumstances; and
- (2) Individual damages with sufficiently definitive and objective evidence to allow the loss to be calculated with a reasonable degree of certainty.

2.4

- All other members of the class shall establish individual damages in a manner determined by the court. In any action brought pursuant to this section, the court may in its discretion order, in addition to damages, injunction or other equitable relief and reasonable attorney's fees. Attorney's fees, if awarded, shall bear a reasonable relationship to the amount of the judgment.

 When the judgment grants equitable relief, the attorney's fees shall be based on the amount of time reasonably expended.
- [3.] 6. An action may be maintained as a class action in a manner consistent with Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Missouri rule of civil procedure 52.08 to the extent such state rule is not inconsistent with the federal rule if:
- (1) The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
 - (2) There are questions of law or fact common to the class;
- (3) The claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and
- (4) The representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and, in addition
- (5) The prosecution of separate action by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:

(a) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class; or

2.5

- (b) Adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; or
- (6) The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or
- (7) The court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include:
- (a) The interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- (b) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class;
- (c) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum;
- (d) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.
- [4.] 7. (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order pursuant to this subdivision may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

- (2) In any class action maintained pursuant to subdivision (7) of subsection [3] 6 of this section, the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that:
- (a) The court will exclude such member from the class if such member so requests by a specified date;
- (b) The judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and
- (c) Any member who does request exclusion may, if such member desires, enter an appearance through such member's counsel.
- (3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection [3] 6 of this section or subdivision (6) of subsection [3] 6 of this section, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action pursuant to subdivision (7) of subsection [3] 6 of this section, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection was directed, and who have requested exclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.
- (4) When appropriate an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this section shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

2.7

- [5.] 8. In the conduct of actions to which this section applies, the court may make appropriate orders:
- (1) Determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;
- (2) Requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;
- (3) Imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;
- (4) Requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly;
 - (5) Dealing with similar procedural matters.
- [6.] 9. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs.
- [7.] 10. Upon commencement of any action brought pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall inform the clerk of the court in which such action is brought, on forms to be provided by such clerk, that the action is brought pursuant to this section. The clerk of the court shall forthwith inform the attorney general of the commencement of such action, together with a copy of the complaint or other initial pleading, and, upon entry of any judgment or decree in the action, the clerk shall mail a copy of such judgment or decree to the attorney general.

- [8.] 11. Any permanent injunction, judgment or order of the court made pursuant to section 407.100 shall be prima facie evidence in an action brought pursuant to this section that the respondent used or employed a method, act or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020.
 - [407.025. 1. (1) Any person who purchases or leases merchandise primarily for personal, family or household purposes and thereby suffers an ascertainable loss of money or property, real or personal, as a result of the use or employment by another person of a method, act or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020, may bring a private civil action in either the circuit court of the county in which the seller or lessor resides or in which the transaction complained of took place, to recover actual damages.
 - (2) A person seeking to recover damages shall establish:
 - (a) That the person acted as a reasonable consumer would in light of all circumstances;
 - (b) That the method, act, or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020 would cause a reasonable person to enter into the transaction that resulted in damages; and
 - (c) Individual damages with sufficiently definitive and objective evidence to allow the loss to be calculated with a reasonable degree of certainty.

 A court may dismiss a claim as a matter of law where the claim fails to show a likelihood that the method, act, or practice alleged to be unlawful would mislead a reasonable consumer.
 - 2. The court may, in its discretion[,]:
 - (1) Award punitive damages [and may];
 - (2) Award to the prevailing party attorney's fees, based on the amount of time reasonably expended[,]; and [may]

(3) Provide such equitable relief as it deems necessary or proper to protect the prevailing party from the methods, acts, or practices declared unlawful by section 407.020.

- 3. No action may be brought under this section to recover damages for personal injury or death in which a claim can be made under chapter 538.
- 4. A cause of action under this section accrues on the date of purchase or lease described in subsection 1 of this section or upon receipt of notice of a method, act, or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020.
- [2.] 5. Persons entitled to bring an action pursuant to subsection 1 of this section may, if the unlawful method, act or practice has caused similar injury to numerous other persons, institute an action as representative or representatives of a class against one or more defendants as representatives of a class, and the petition shall allege such facts as will show that these persons or the named defendants specifically named and served with process have been fairly chosen and adequately and fairly represent the whole class, to recover damages as provided for in subsection 1 of this section. The plaintiff shall be required to prove such allegations, unless all of the members of the class have entered their appearance, and it shall not be sufficient to prove such facts by the admission or admissions of the defendants who have entered their appearance. The class representative or representatives shall establish:
- (1) That the representative or representatives acted as a reasonable consumer would in light of all circumstances;
- (2) That the method, act, or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020 would cause a reasonable person to enter into the transaction that resulted in damages; and
- (3) Individual damages with sufficiently definitive and objective evidence to allow the loss to be calculated with a reasonable degree of certainty. All other members of the class shall establish individual damages in a manner determined by the court. In any action brought pursuant to this section, the court may in its discretion order, in addition to damages, injunction or other equitable relief and reasonable attorney's fees. Attorney's fees, if awarded, shall bear a reasonable relationship to the amount of the judgment. When the judgment grants equitable relief, the attorney's fees shall be based on the amount of time reasonably expended.
- [3.] $\underline{6.}$ An action may be maintained as a class action in a manner consistent with Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Missouri rule of civil procedure 52.08 to the extent such state rule is not inconsistent with the federal rule if:

- (2) In any class action maintained pursuant to subdivision (7) of subsection [3] 6 of this section, the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that:
- (a) The court will exclude such member from the class if such member so requests by a specified date;
- (b) The judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and
- (c) Any member who does request exclusion may, if such member desires, enter an appearance through such member's counsel.
- (3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection [3] $\underline{6}$ of this section or subdivision (6) of subsection [3] $\underline{6}$ of this section, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action pursuant to subdivision (7) of subsection [3] $\underline{6}$ of this section, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection was directed, and who have requested exclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.
- (4) When appropriate an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this section shall then be construed and applied accordingly.
- [5.] 8. In the conduct of actions to which this section applies, the court may make appropriate orders:
- (1) Determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;
- (2) Requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;

 - (5) Dealing with similar procedural matters.
- [6.] $\underline{9.}$ A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs.
- [7.] 10. Upon commencement of any action brought pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall inform the clerk of the court in which such action is brought, on forms to be provided by such clerk, that the action is brought pursuant to this section. The clerk of the court shall forthwith inform the attorney general of the commencement of such action, together with a copy of the complaint or other initial pleading, and, upon entry of any judgment or decree in the action, the clerk shall mail a copy of such judgment or decree to the attorney general.
- [8.] 11. Any permanent injunction, judgment or order of the court made pursuant to section 407.100 shall be prima facie evidence in an action brought pursuant to this section that the respondent used or employed a method, act or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020.1"; and Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.
