by inserting after all of said line the following: 2 3 "170.015. 1. Any course materials and instruction relating to human sexuality and sexually transmitted 4 diseases shall be medically and factually accurate and shall: 5 Present abstinence from sexual activity as the 6 7 preferred choice of behavior in relation to all sexual 8 activity for unmarried pupils because it is the only method 9 that is one hundred percent effective in preventing pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases and the emotional 10 trauma associated with adolescent sexual activity, and 11 12 advise students that teenage sexual activity places them at a higher risk of dropping out of school because of the 13 consequences of sexually transmitted diseases and unplanned 14 15 pregnancy; 16 (2) Stress that sexually transmitted diseases are serious, possible, health hazards of sexual activity. 17 Pupils shall be provided with the latest medical information 18 regarding exposure to human immunodeficiency virus, acquired 19 20 immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS), human papilloma virus, 21 hepatitis and other sexually transmitted diseases; (3) Present students with the latest medically factual 22 23 information regarding both the possible side effects and 24 health benefits of all forms of contraception, including the 25 success and failure rates for the prevention of pregnancy 26 and sexually transmitted diseases; or shall present students

- with information on contraceptives and pregnancy in a manner consistent with the provisions of the federal abstinence education law, 42 U.S.C. Section 710;
- 30 (4) Include a discussion of the possible emotional and psychological consequences of preadolescent and adolescent sexual activity and the consequences of adolescent pregnancy, as well as the advantages of adoption, including the adoption of special needs children, and the processes involved in making an adoption plan;
- Teach skills of conflict management, personal responsibility and positive self-esteem through discussion and role-playing at appropriate grade levels to emphasize that the pupil has the power to control personal behavior. Pupils shall be encouraged to base their actions on reasoning, self-discipline, sense of responsibility, self-control, and ethical considerations, such as respect for one's self and others. Pupils shall be taught not to make unwanted physical and verbal sexual advances or otherwise exploit another person. Pupils shall be taught to resist unwanted sexual advances and other negative peer pressure;
 - (6) Advise pupils of the laws pertaining to their financial responsibility to children born in and out of wedlock and advise pupils of the provisions of chapter 566 pertaining to statutory rape;

(7) Teach pupils about the dangers of sexual predators, including online predators when using electronic communication methods such as the internet, cell phones, text messages, chat rooms, email, and instant messaging programs. Pupils shall be taught how to behave responsibly and remain safe on the internet and the importance of having open communication with responsible adults and reporting any inappropriate situation, activity, or abuse to a responsible adult, and depending on intent and content, to local law

- 60 enforcement, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or the
- 61 National Center for Missing & Exploited Children's
- 62 CyberTipline;
- 63 (8) Teach pupils about the consequences, both personal
- 64 and legal, of inappropriate text messaging, even among
- 65 friends; and
- 66 (9) Teach pupils about sexual harassment, sexual
- 67 violence, and consent:
- 68 (a) For the purposes of this subdivision, the term
- 69 "consent" shall mean a freely given agreement to the conduct
- 70 at issue by a competent person. An expression of lack of
- 71 consent through words or conduct means there is no consent.
- 72 Lack of verbal or physical resistance or submission
- 73 resulting from the use of force, threat of force, or placing
- 74 another person in fear does not constitute consent. A
- 75 current or previous dating or social or sexual relationship
- 76 by itself or the manner of dress of the person involved with
- 77 the accused in the conduct at issue shall not constitute
- 78 consent;
- 79 (b) For the purposes of this subdivision, the term
- 80 "sexual harassment" shall mean uninvited and unwelcome
- 81 verbal or physical behavior of a sexual nature especially by
- 82 a person in authority toward a subordinate;
- 83 (c) For the purposes of this subdivision, the term
- 84 "sexual violence" shall mean causing or attempting to cause
- 85 another to engage involuntarily in any sexual act by force,
- 86 threat of force, duress, or without that person's consent.
- 87 2. Policies concerning referrals and parental
- 88 notification regarding contraception shall be determined by
- 89 local school boards or charter schools, consistent with the
- 90 provisions of section 167.611.

- 91 3. A school district or charter school which provides 92 human sexuality instruction may separate students according 93 to gender for instructional purposes.
- 94 4. The board of a school district or charter school 95 shall determine the specific content of the district's or 96 school's instruction in human sexuality, in accordance with 97 subsections 1 to 3 of this section, and shall ensure that 98 all instruction in human sexuality is appropriate to the age 99 of the students receiving such instruction.
- 5. Before providing any course materials and instruction relating to human sexuality and sexually transmitted diseases to any student, regardless of the course title or description, a school district or charter school shall notify the parent or legal guardian of each student enrolled in the district or school of[:
