

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

EIGHTH DAY - WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 2025

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Wasinger in the Chair.

The Reverend Stephen George offered the following prayer:

"Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and he will establish your plans." (Proverbs 16:3 NIV)

Almighty God, we come before You today, acknowledging Your sovereignty over all things. Your word reminds us to commit our work to You so that our plans may succeed according to Your will. As we begin this session, we ask for Your guidance to lead us. May our deliberations lead to decisions that uplift, protect, and benefit all those we are elected to serve. We ask this in Your Holy Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

Photographers from the Missouri Catholic Conference were given permission to take pictures in the Senate Chamber.

Senator McCreery offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4

Whereas, Missouri's access to over 1,000 miles of the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers and the Port of Metropolitan St. Louis' position as the second largest inland port system in the United States make Missouri a critical hub in the nation's transportation system; and

Whereas, the recent global pandemic, hostilities in Europe, and efforts by the People's Republic of China to gain dominance over global supply chains have demonstrated the critical importance of maintaining resilient domestic industries and transportation services to the citizens and workforce of Missouri; and

Whereas, the Merchant Marine Act of 1920, known as the Jones Act and codified in Title 46 of the United States Code, requires that vessels carrying cargo between locations in the United States be owned by American companies, crewed by American mariners, and built in American shipyards; and

Whereas, the United States' ability to project and deploy forces globally, and supply and maintain military installations domestically, depends on the civilian fleet of Jones Act vessels and mariners; and

Whereas, mariners aboard Jones Act vessels strengthen America's homeland security as added eyes and ears monitoring the nation's 95,000 miles of shoreline and 25,000 miles of navigable inland waterways; and

Whereas, Missouri is home to 8,790 maritime jobs supported by the Jones Act that generate $503.8 million in labor income; and

Whereas, maritime industry jobs create ladders of opportunity for Missourians through high-paying, family-wage careers that offer significant career advancement without requiring collegiate degrees and extensive student loans; and

Whereas, the more than 40,000 vessel strong Jones Act fleet supports nearly 650,000 family-wage jobs and over $154 billion in economic output nationally and $1.8 billion to the Missouri economy:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, One Hundred and Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby affirm their resolute support for the Jones Act and celebrates the Jones Act's central role in fostering a strong domestic maritime industry that is critical to Missouri's and the nation's economic prosperity and national security; and

Be It Further Resolved that properly inscribed copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

Senator McCreery offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5

Whereas, American farmers and ranchers raise the best meat in the world; and

Whereas, Americans should have the right to knowingly buy made-in-America products; and

Whereas, American farmers, ranchers, workers, and consumers benefit from transparency on the origins of their food; and

Whereas, consumers have repeatedly and overwhelmingly expressed their support for country of origin labeling of food products in the United States; and

Whereas, in 2008, the United States Congress overwhelmingly passed mandatory country of origin labeling for muscle cuts and ground meat sold at retail, requiring meat produced from imported livestock or imported boxed meat to bear a different label from meat produced from United States born, raised, and slaughtered livestock; and

Whereas, trade groups and the organizations representing multinational meat packers worked predominantly with Canada, as well as Mexico, to bring a World Trade Organization case against the United States for the removal of the country of origin labeling requirements; and

Whereas, in 2015, the United States Congress repealed the country of origin labeling law for beef and pork, reducing the competitive advantage of products born, raised, and slaughtered in the United States; and

Whereas, the United States has the highest food safety standards in the world, while other countries place less emphasis on food safety; and

Whereas, foreign commodities like beef and pork are misleadingly labeled "Product of the USA" if they are processed or packed in the United States; and

Whereas, country of origin labeling gives producers and consumers the ability to distinguish true American products from foreign imported meat; and

Whereas, technological advancements make it possible to accurately and efficiently identify the origins of beef and pork without costly separation of imported and domestic commodities; and

Whereas, country of origin labeling is good for farmers, ranchers, workers, and meat packers because it allows them to identify their products as born, raised, and slaughtered in the United States; and

Whereas, the Missouri General Assembly supports American products, and consumers deserve the right to know the origins of their food:

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, One Hundred Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby support the right of consumers to know the origins of their food, support the use of country of origin labels, and urge the United States Congress to reinstate mandatory country of origin labeling; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of Missouri's Congressional delegation.

Senator Fitzwater offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 6

Whereas, a century ago, in October 1924, Ireland formally opened diplomatic relations with the United States of America when Timothy Smiddy presented his credentials to President Calvin Coolidge. Following the Irish people's long and painful struggle for independence, the U.S. was one of the first nations to recognize the fledgling Irish state earlier that year, and when Smiddy emerged from the White House, he had become Ireland's first Ambassador to any country in the world. It was very appropriate that Ireland's first representative overseas should be dispatched to Washington, D.C. for, while 1924 marked the beginning of formal diplomatic relations, the deep Irish-American connection dated back centuries; and

Whereas, today, nearly one-tenth of Americans identify as being of Irish ancestry. Irish immigrants helped build the America we know today, not only the physical infrastructure from the skyscrapers of Manhattan to the transcontinental railroad, but also the political construct that is America; and

Whereas, Irish people have made an enormous contribution to public debate and politics in America, from their local communities right up to the White House. More than twenty American Presidents claimed some Irish ancestry. But the influence of Irish America extends well beyond the Oval Office and the Capitol building, to every state within the Union, most evident in the significant number of state legislators within the American Irish State Legislators Caucus; and

Whereas, since Timothy Smiddy's momentous audience in the Oval Office 100 years ago, a further eighteen Irish Ambassadors have presented credentials to U.S. Presidents. Over this time, Ireland's relations with the United States have evolved significantly. From an impoverished and internationally isolated state, scarred by years of conflict, Ireland has transformed over the past century. Ireland today is at peace, economically prosperous, and culturally vibrant; and

Whereas, this transformation is due to the support of friends in the United States, from the crucial role America played in brokering peace in Northern Ireland, culminating with the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, to the huge American economic investment in Ireland. There are almost one thousand U.S. companies in Ireland, employing over two hundred thousand people directly. Our economic relationship is truly two-way; some one hundred thousand people are employed in the U.S. by over 650 Irish-owned companies, across all fifty states. Indeed, Ireland is now the ninth largest source of foreign direct investment in the U.S.; and

Whereas, the U.S.-Irish relationship is a shining example of how ancestral ties, historical connections, cultural affinities, and shared values can create a foundation for enduring partnership and mutual prosperity. Irish American state legislators across the United States are playing a vitally important role in fostering this partnership and ensuring that it continues and flourishes for another century to come:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, One Hundred and Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby recognize and celebrate the special relationship between the United States and Ireland; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the American Irish State Legislators Caucus.

Senator Moon offered the following concurrent resolution:
