AN ACT

To repeal section 473.767, RSMo 1994, relating to probate code, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the same subject.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 473.767, RSMo 1994, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 473.767, to read as follows:

473.767. 1. The public administrator shall before the first court day after the expiration of one year after his successor in office has qualified, file his final settlement as required by section 473.540 for all estates in his charge as public administrator in which final settlement can be made. On the first court day after the expiration of one year after the election of a successor to the public administrator, the judge of the probate division, upon his own motion, shall order the public administrator to account for and deliver all money, property, or papers belonging to all estates in his hands in which final settlement can not be made, to his successor in office, or to the heirs of any estate, or to any executor or administrator regularly appointed, and such accounting and delivery shall be accomplished during the sixty days next thereafter.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, [in all first class counties
