When it is not practicable to give the notice of dismissal to a certificate holder in person, it may be sent to the certificate holder by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, at the last mailing address shown in the personnel records of the last known employer. Proof of refusal of the certificate holder to accept delivery or the inability of postal authorities to deliver such mail shall be accepted as evidence that the required notice of hearing has been given.

The administrative hearing commission shall grant the request of a peace officer or certified reserve officer for a continuance of the preliminary hearing; however, the department's order shall remain in full force and effect until the preliminary hearing, which shall be held not later than forty days after service of the documents required in subdivision (2) of subsection 2.

4. At the preliminary hearing, the administrative hearing commission shall receive into evidence all information certified by the department and shall only hear evidence on the issue of whether the department's order of suspension or restriction should be terminated or modified. Within one hour after the preliminary hearing, the administrative hearing commission shall issue its oral or written preliminary order, with or without findings of fact and conclusions of law, that either adopts, terminates or modifies the department's order. The administrative hearing commission shall reduce to writing any oral preliminary order within five business days, but the effective date of the order shall be the date orally issued.

5. The preliminary order of the administrative hearing commission shall become a final order and shall remain in effect for three years unless either party files a request for a full hearing on the merits of the complaint filed by the department within thirty days from the date of the issuance of the preliminary order of the administrative hearing commission.

6. Upon receipt of a request for full hearing, the administrative hearing commission shall set a date for hearing and notify the parties in writing of the time and place of the hearing. If a request for full hearing is timely filed, the preliminary order of the administrative hearing commission shall remain in effect until the administrative hearing commission enters an order terminating, modifying or dismissing its preliminary order or until the department issues an order of discipline following its consideration of the decision of the administrative hearing commission pursuant to

590.138. Upon application by the department, and the necessary burden having been met, a court of general jurisdiction may grant an injunction, restraining order or other order as may be appropriate to enjoin a person from engaging in any practice or business authorized by a certificate, permit or license issued pursuant to this chapter upon a showing that the holder presents a substantial probability of serious danger to the health, safety or welfare of any resident of the state.

590.139. 1. The director may administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, issue subpoenas duces tecum and require production of documents and records. Subpoenas, including subpoenas duces tecum, shall be served by a person authorized to serve subpoenas of courts of record. In lieu of requiring attendance of a person to produce original documents in response to a subpoena duces tecum, the department may require sworn copies of such documents to be filed with it or delivered to its designated representative.

2. The department may enforce its subpoenas, including subpoenas duces tecum, by applying to a circuit court of the county of the investigation, hearing or proceeding, or any county where the person resides or may be found, for an order upon any person who shall fail to obey a subpoena to show cause why such subpoena should not be enforced. The show cause order and a copy of the application shall be served upon the person in the same manner as a summons in a civil action. If the circuit court after a hearing, determines that the subpoena should be sustained and enforced, the court shall proceed to enforce the subpoena in the same manner as though the subpoena had been issued in a civil case in the circuit court.
