FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

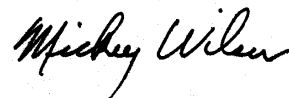

DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation would allow for the termination of parental rights for the domestic murder of a spouse. Current language in Section 211.447, RSMo, does not list the domestic murder of a child's parent by the other parent as a ground for terminating parental rights. New language would provide that the murder, voluntary manslaughter, or the attempt to commit such crimes, or the felony assault of the parent by the child's other parent would be grounds for termination of parental rights.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
