FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education stated this proposal would have no fiscal impact on their agency or any school district affected.

Officials from the Poplar Bluff School District assume this proposal would positively affect public schools.

SECTION 165.018

Officials from the school districts of Puxico R-III, Valley R-VI, and Bismarck R-V stated that although there would be indirect positive impact from the passage of this proposal, there will be no direct fiscal impact to their district or any other district as a result of transferring funds from the operating fund to the capital projects fund.

SECTION 171.033

Oversight assumes that while some school districts might see a decrease in certain reimbursements while incurring fixed costs, school districts could also realize some savings from not having facilities open for up to five days.

ASSUMPTION (continued)

A fiscal impact request was sent to the school districts of Caruthersville, Renick, Kennett, and Dexter, who did not respond to a request for fiscal impact of the proposal.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

SECTION 165.018

This proposed legislation permits school districts meeting certain criteria to make a one-time additional transfer from the incidental fund to the capital projects fund in an amount not to exceed forty percent of that district's June 30, 2006, incidental fund.

Puxico R-VIII, Valley R-VI, Caruthersville 18, and Bismarck R-V are the only school districts known to fit the qualifications delineated in the act.

The provisions of this section shall terminate on July 1, 2007.

SECTION 171.033

Current law contains permission to reduce the number of days in the school calendar because of inclement weather during school year 2002-2003 and a waiver of the requirement to schedule make-up days in 2003-2004. This proposal makes those reductions applicable to the 2005-2006 school year for inclement weather occurring after April 1, 2006 and waives the required two-thirds make-up for the 2005-2006 school year.

DESCRIPTION (continued)

Any school district that is eligible to reduce its requirement to make up days may provide food service on a summer school food service bases if it resumes school with double sessions
This proposal contains an emergency clause.

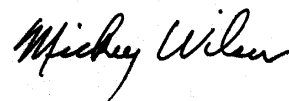

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
