FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Mental Health, Department of Corrections, and the Department of Public Safety – Director’s Office assume the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their agencies.

Officials from the Office of State Courts Administrator assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on the courts.

Officials from the Office of Prosecution Services assume the proposal would not have a significant direct fiscal impact on county prosecutors.

Officials from the Office of the State Public Defender (SPD) assume existing staff could not provide competent, effective representation for any cases arising where indigent persons were charged with the proposed additional crime of criminal sexual psychopaths escaping from commitment or detention. SPD assumes this new crime will require more SPD resources. While the number of new cases (or cases with increased penalties) may be too few or uncertain to request additional appropriations for this specific bill, the SPD will continue to request sufficient appropriations to provide competent and effective representation in all its cases.

ASSUMPTION (continued)

Oversight assumes the Office of the State Public Defender (SPD) could absorb the costs of the proposed legislation within existing resources. Oversight assumes any significant increase in the workload of the SPD would be reflected in future budget requests.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation specifies that individuals institutionally committed under the “sexual psychopath” statutes in effect prior to 1980 can be guilty of escaping from commitment. Escape from commitment or detention is a class D felony.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
