DESCRIPTION

This proposal would modify the process for review of an administrative agency's decisions. In cases where the law provides for an independent review of an agency's decision by a board other than the Administrative Hearing Commission and further provides for a de novo review of the board's decision by the circuit court, an aggrieved party may, within thirty days after it receives notice of that decision, waive independent review by that board and file a petition in the circuit court for the de novo review of the agency's decision.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
