FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Office of the Attorney General (AGO) state they currently have a policy in place under which Assistant Attorneys General (AAG) may, after being granted permission, practice law outside of their regular employment. Because of the unusually high likelihood of legal conflicts of interest inherent in working as an AAG, individual permission is required for each case. AGO assumes this proposal would have no impact on this internal policy. To the extent this proposal would increase activity by public employees seeking to be insured by the legal expense fund, AGO assumes any costs could be absorbed.

Officials from the Office of State Courts Administrator assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on the courts.

Officials from the Department of Conservation (MDC) assume the proposal would have fiscal impact on MDC funds since it would allow attorneys employed by the state to be appointed to pro bono appointments. The exact amount of impact is unknown but could be significant.

Oversight assumes, based on responses received from other state agencies, the Department of Conservation could absorb any costs within existing resources.

Officials from the Office of Prosecution Services assume the proposal would not have a significant direct fiscal impact on county prosecutors or the Office of Prosecution Services.
