FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Missouri Veteran's Commission indicated there would be no fiscal impact on their agency. They contacted the Department of Defense regarding the number of potential individuals that would be eligible or have received the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal. They were advised that the Defense Manpower Data Center, the agency that archives information for the Department of Defense, does not document military members that have received or will receive the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal.

Officials from the Department of Revenue (DOR) state that for each 100 specialty plate applications received, there will be an increase in revenue each year of $1,500 that would be distributed as follows: Highway Fund - 75%; Cities - 15%; Counties - 10%. Costs to DOR would be $1,509 for the first 100 specialty applications received for application, plate set-up, postage, envelopes, notification, and plate costs. The number of plates that would be requested is unknown.
