FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials at the Office of the Secretary of State, Platte County Board of Election Commission and the St. Louis County Board of Election Commission assume there is no fiscal impact from this proposal.

Officials at the Kansas City Board of Election Commission assume not having an election could save the districts between $250,000 and $400,000. Additionally, a savings of less than $1,000 for not printing the emblems on the ballot.

Oversight assumes that any realized savings from not printing the emblems on the ballot is minimal and therefore Oversight is showing no impact.

Oversight assumes that changing the date of the presidential primary election would not affect the cost of the election. Oversight assumes no impact from this provision.

Oversight assume this proposal eliminates the June election date which was only used as a special election on rare occasions. Oversight assumes no impact from this provision.

Oversight assumes this proposal eliminates the February election which may result in some savings to certain entities while others may experience costs from bond elections allowed in February. Oversight assumes that having the February election is permissive and will not reflect an impact from this provision.

Officials at the following board of election commissions: St. Louis City Board of Election Commission, Clay County Board of Election Commission and the Jackson County Board of Election Commission did not respond to Oversight's request for fiscal impact.

Officials at the following counties: Andrew, Barry, Bates, Boone, Buchanan, Butler, Callaway, Camden, Cape Girardeau, Carroll, Cass, Clay, Cole, Cooper, DeKalb, Franklin, Greene, Hickory, Holt, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson, Johnson, Knox, Laclede, Lafayette, Lawrence, Lincoln, Marion, Miller, Moniteau, Monroe, Montgomery, New Madrid, Nodaway, Ozark, Pemiscot, Perry, Phelps, Platte, Pulaski, Scott, St. Charles, St. Louis, St. Francois, Taney, Texas, Warren, and Webster did not respond to Oversight's request for fiscal impact.
