FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

§160.775 Antibullying Policy

Officials at the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) assume local school districts might incur additional printing costs to implement this proposal. In addition, depending upon the level of training required by each school district for its school employees and volunteers, there could be significant unknown costs.

Officials at the Kansas City Public Schools assume the proposal would have a fiscal impact to the district. They estimate there will be costs associated with training and education of staff and stakeholders between $50,000 and $75,000.

Officials at the Everton R-III School District and the Malta Bend School District each assume there is no fiscal impact to their respective organizations from this proposal.

Oversight assumes this proposal requires school districts to implement antibullying policies that include certain information. School districts will have printing costs and staff training costs. Oversight will show the impact to school districts as More than $100,000.

Officials at the following schools: Blue Springs Public Schools, Branson Public Schools, Caruthersville School District, Cole R-I Schools, Columbia Public Schools, Fair Grove Schools, Fulton Public School, Harrisonville School District, Independence Public Schools, Jefferson City Public Schools, Kirksville Public Schools, Kirbyville R-VI Schools, Lee Summit Public Schools, Macon School, Mexico Public Schools, Monroe City R-I Schools, Nixa Public Schools, Parkway Public Schools, Pattonville Schools, Raymore-Peculiar R-III Schools, Raytown School District, Riverview Gardens School District, Sedalia School District, Sikeston Public Schools, Silex Public Schools, Special School District of St. Louis County, Spickard School District, Springfield School District, St Joseph School District, St Louis Public Schools, St. Charles Public Schools, Sullivan Public Schools, Warren County R-III School District and Waynesville Public School did not respond to Oversight's request for fiscal impact.
