FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Due to time constraints, Oversight originally prepared a fiscal note for this bill without all of the agency responses. Oversight has since obtained the agency responses and upon review of those responses, believes the original fiscal note should be updated. Therefore, this fiscal note updates the original by providing agency responses.

#Officials at the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) assume there would be no additional cost to the state. There will be a loss to those charter schools which cannot include as local revenue, those funds designated by taxpayers as early childhood education funds. DESE defers to the urban school districts regarding the extent of any funds that will remain in the district of residence rather than being distributed to the charter schools.

#Oversight assumes this proposal would not fiscally impact General Revenue. However, this would result in some school districts retaining additional money while the charter school districts would lose the money. This transfer of money would be offsetting.

#Officials at the Kansas City Public Schools assume little to no impact from this proposal.

Officials at the City of Kansas City assume there is no fiscal impact from this proposal.
