This proposal has a provision that may not have a fiscal impact until such time as the formula is fully funded ($163.011). Oversight, for fiscal note purposes, is showing the impact of those provisions as if the formula were fully funded.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials at the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) assume this proposal makes changes to the funding formula. One section would result in additional state aid; one section has the potential to be a savings in state aid. However, neither section will result in a fiscal impact unless the formula is fully funded.

DESE assumes §163.018 will have an undetermined increase in cost to the formula by the inclusion of charter schools in the schools that can count preschool children in the Average Daily Attendance for state aid purposes. The potential cost could exceed $1 million.

DESE assumes §163.011(3)(b) changes the law to provide for a cap on the increase in state funding that is included in the calculation of the state adequacy target. This has the potential to be a cost saver for the state. The potential savings could exceed $1 million.

DESE assumes §163.011(18) might not cause immediate savings; however, this provision brings into control the rate of growth of the State Adequacy Target, thereby reducing potential future increases to the formula call for full funding.

Oversight notes that DESE and the Office of Administration's Division of Budget and Planning were not able to provide Oversight with a projection of when the foundation formula may be fully funded. This proposal has a provision that may not have a fiscal impact until such time as the formula is fully funded. Oversight for fiscal note purposes is showing the impact of that provision as if the formula were fully funded.

Oversight notes that DESE and the Office of Administration's Division of Budget and Planning were not able to provide Oversight with a projection of when the foundation formula may be fully funded. This proposal has two provisions that may not have a fiscal impact until such time as the formula is fully funded (§§160.405 and 162.1250). Oversight, for fiscal note purposes, is showing the impact of those provisions as if the formula were fully funded.
