Type: Original

Bill No.: SB 896

Date: February 1, 2016

Subject: Liability; Emergencies; Children and Minors

Bill Summary: This proposal provides that a person who removes an unattended child from a locked car shall not be held liable for damages.

State Fiscal Highlights

- No direct fiscal impact on the state is anticipated.

Local Fiscal Highlights

- No direct fiscal impact on local political subdivisions is anticipated.

Fiscal Analysis

Oversight was unable to receive some of the agency responses in a timely manner due to the short fiscal note request time. Oversight has presented this fiscal note on the best current information that we have or on prior year information regarding a similar bill. Upon the receipt of agency responses, Oversight will review to determine if an updated fiscal note should be prepared and seek the necessary approval of the chairperson of the Joint Committee on Legislative Research to publish a new fiscal note.

Officials at the Department of Health and Senior Services and the Office of the State Courts Administrator each assume no fiscal impact from this proposal to their respective agencies.

Officials at the Boone County Sheriff's Department, Columbia Police Department, Springfield Police Department and the Jefferson City Police Department each assume no fiscal impact to their respective entities from this proposal.

Officials from the Buchanan County Sheriff's Department, Cass County Sheriff's Department, Clark County Sheriff's Department, Cole County Sheriff's Department, Independence Police Department, Jackson County Sheriff's Department, Platte County Sheriff's Department, St. Charles Police Department, St. Joseph Police Department, St. Louis County Police Department, St. Louis County Justice Services and the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department did not respond to Oversight's request for fiscal impact.

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal. Also, this legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
