Bill No.: SB 1129

Date: March 25, 2016

Subject: Children and Minors; Family Law; Courts; Domestic Relations; Medical Procedures and Personnel; Science and Technology

Bill Summary: This proposal modifies provisions of law relating to custody of in vitro human embryos.

State Fiscal Highlights

- No direct fiscal impact on the state is anticipated.

Local Fiscal Highlights

- No direct fiscal impact on local political subdivisions is anticipated.

Fiscal Analysis

Officials at the Office of the State Courts Administrator, the Department of Health and Senior Services, the Department of Social Services, the Office of the State Public Defender and the Office of Prosecution Services each assume no fiscal impact to their respective agencies from this proposal.

Officials at the Office of the Attorney General did not respond to Oversight's request for fiscal impact.

Oversight assumes this proposal contains procedural changes in statute and would not have a direct fiscal impact.

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal. Also, this legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
