FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Office of Administration - Division of Budget and Planning (BAP) assume this proposal would create a new property tax exemption. Portions of privately-owned lands subject to railroad easements on which a state, political subdivision, or qualified organization has assumed responsibility would not be subject to taxation. If this change lowers property tax receipts, Blind Pension Fund revenues could be reduced, thus lowering Total State Revenues. In addition, local schools may lose property tax revenues. BAP officials noted this proposal could have an impact on the revenue limit calculations under the Missouri Constitution.

Officials from the Forsyth R-III School District and the Kirkville R-III School District assume this proposal could have a negative impact on schools but did not provide an estimate of the potential fiscal impact.

Officials from the West Plains School District stated they did not know if this exemption would apply to any property in their district.

Officials from the Office of the Secretary of State, the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules, the Office of Administration - Division of Budget and Planning, the Department of Conservation, the Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Revenue, the State Tax Commission, Callaway County, the City of Kansas City, the Forsyth R-III School District, the Jackson County Election Board, the Platte County Board of Elections, and the St. Louis County Directors of Elections assume this proposal would have no fiscal impact on their organizations.

In response to a similar proposal in the previous session, officials from the State Tax Commission assumed the impact would be minimal since some landowners currently pay taxes; however, the easements would be of negligible value.

ASSUMPTION (continued)

Due to the negligible values, minimal property taxes, and the small amount of effect to the State's Blind Pension Trust Fund ($.03 levy), Oversight will show no fiscal impact in the fiscal note.
