FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations-Missouri Commission on Human Rights (DOLIR-MCHR) assume there would be a small increase in the number of complaints it receives each year; however, MCHR assumes it would be able to absorb the workload with existing resources. If the increase in workload is significant, MCHR would pursue additional resources via the appropriations process.

Officials from the Office of Administration-Administrative Hearing Commission assume the proposal will not significantly alter its caseload. If similar proposals pass, resulting in more cases, there will be fiscal impact.

Officials from the Department of Transportation, Missouri Department of Conservation, and Office of Administration-Personnel each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

Officials from the Jackson County Board of Election Commissioners, St. Louis County Board of Election Commissioners, St. Louis County, and City of Kansas City each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

Officials from the Missouri Western State University, Missouri State University, State Technical College of Missouri, University of Central Missouri, and University of Missouri each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

Officials from the West Plains Schools, Forsyth R-III Schools, Kirksville R-III School District, and Summersville R-2 School District each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation appears to have no direct fiscal impact.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
