FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Office of the Secretary of State (SOS) and Department of Corrections (DOC) both assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

Oversight notes that as of December 19, 2019, there were 62,460 offenders under probation and parole supervision according to information provided from DOC. Therefore, there could be an increase in registered voters.

Oversight notes that the Office of the Secretary of State and Department of Corrections have stated the proposal would not have a direct fiscal impact on their respective organizations. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact on the fiscal note.

Officials from the Jackson County Election Board, Platte County Board of Elections, St. Louis County Board of Elections, and Madison County each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

Oversight notes that the Jackson County Election Board, Platte County Board of Elections, St. Louis County Board of Elections, and Madison County have stated the proposal would not have a direct fiscal impact on their respective organizations. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact on the fiscal note.

Oversight only reflects the responses that we have received from state agencies and political subdivisions; however, other local election authorities were requested to respond to this proposed legislation but did not. For a general listing of political subdivisions included in our database, you may contact the Oversight Division.
