FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Revenue and the Office of the Secretary of State each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for these agencies.

Oversight only reflects the responses received from state agencies and political subdivisions; however, several counties were requested to respond to this proposed legislation but did not. A listing of political subdivisions included in the Missouri Legislative Information System (MOLIS) database is available upon request.

Oversight notes statutes states a county library board of trustees may order an election on the question of increasing taxes under §182.010. This proposal would give the county commission authority to overrule and reject a county library board of trustees’ decision to order an election on the question of increasing taxes and remove any trustee of the board for conduct prejudicial to the good order and effective operation of the library. Oversight assumes there could be some election cost savings to county commissions, but believes the savings would not be material. Therefore, Oversight assumes no fiscal impact for this proposal.

FISCAL IMPACT – Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation appears to have no direct fiscal impact.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
