FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

§67.5060 – Design-Build Method of Construction

Officials from the Department of Health and Senior Services defer to the Office of Administration for the potential fiscal impact of this proposal.

Officials from the Office of Administration, the Department of Commerce and Insurance, the Department of Economic Development, the Department of Higher Education and Workforce Development, the Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, the Missouri Department of Conservation, the Missouri Department of Transportation, Kansas City, Springfield, the Metropolitan St. Louis Sewer District and the University of Central Missouri each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for these agencies.

Oversight assumes the local political subdivisions would not use the Design Build process unless it would either save money, provide some other benefit, or be absorbed within current budget appropriations. Therefore, Oversight will assume the proposal could have a positive fiscal impact to local political subdivisions from this proposal and will range the fiscal impact from $0 to an unknown amount of savings.

FISCAL IMPACT – Small Business

There could be a direct fiscal impact to small businesses who utilize the design build method on projects as a result of this proposal.

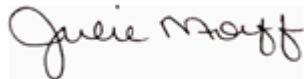

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

This act repeals the September 1, 2026, sunset date on the authority for political subdivisions to use the design-build method of constructing buildings and facilities, and makes technical corrections to the underlying statute.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
