ASSUMPTION

Representatives of the Office of State Courts Administrator would expect a few cases to test the parameters of the proposal but would not expect a material impact on the workload of state courts.

	$0	$0	$0
FISCAL IMPACT - Local Government	FY 2002 (10 Mo.)	FY 2003	FY 2004

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

DESCRIPTION

This proposal would require that a test of compelling state interest be applied to all state and local laws in cases which would affect the exercise of religion. No law or regulation could restrict a person's free exercise of religion unless it were in the form a rule of general applicability and did not discriminate against religion or among religions and it furthered a compelling governmental interest in the least restrictive way.

This proposal would apply to all state and local laws, resolutions and ordinances adopted before or after the effective date of this proposal.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space. The proposal would not affect Total State Revenues.
