FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials of the Office of State Courts Administrator assume that most counties wanting to impose this fee would have done so by now, and any fiscal impact would be minimal.

Officials of the Department of Social Services-Division of Family Services assumes no fiscal impact.

Officials of Greene County assume no fiscal impact.

Officials of the Jefferson County Commission assume no fiscal impact.

Oversight assumes that local governments that wanted to impose this fee would have done so, therefore, for the purposes of this fiscal note Oversight assumes no fiscal impact to state or local government.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

This act removes the sunset clause from Section 488.445, RSMo, and allows counties to pass ordinances to impose fees on the issue of marriage licenses and surcharges upon civil cases. Currently, this statute requires ordinances to be passed before January 1, 2001.

DESCRIPTION (continued)

The fees collected would be deposited in a special fund to provide financial assistance to domestic violence shelters.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
