FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials of the Department of Public Safety-Missouri Highway Patrol assume no fiscal impact.

Officials of the Office of the Attorney General assume no fiscal impact to their office.

The following political subdivisions submitted the following fiscal impact statements to identical legislation (SB 123) from last session:

Officials of the City of Mexico, Springfield, and Hannibal assume no fiscal impact.

Officials of the City of St. Louis assume no fiscal impact.

Officials of the Kansas City Manager's Office assume no fiscal impact

Officials of the Cole County Commission assume no fiscal impact.

Officials of the City of St. Charles assume if their city would have a cause of action against a gun manufacturer, association, or dealer, that this proposal would cause a loss of revenue to the city by denying the city the right to sue to collect damages. Officials assume loss is unknown.

Oversight is not able to predict or estimate whether in the absence of this legislation if any political subdivision would receive any settlement from litigation, therefore, Oversight will show fiscal impact to local governments as $0 to (Unknown).

FISCAL IMPACT - State Government	FY 2002 (10 Mo.)	FY 2003	FY 2004

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

This act provides that the design, marketing, manufacture or sale of firearms or ammunition is not an reasonably dangerous activity and does not constitute a nuisance per se. The act prohibits political subdivisions as well as the state, from instituting a lawsuit against any firearms or ammunition manufacturer relating to design, marketing, manufacture or sale to the public. The act allows actions regarding breach of contract or warranty for firearms or ammunition purchased by a state or political subdivision.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
